

Planning the Legacy of Your Faith

Must I have a will?

When you pass on, if you do not have a will, the laws of Ontario will determine how your estate will be split up and who will receive it. Is that what you want?

If you want to decide who will benefit from your estate, you must have a will. If you wish to leave a legacy of your faith to St Thomas, you must have a will.

Preparing a will need not be a complicated process. It all depends on the size and complexity of your estate.

You can obtain more information on preparing a will from the booklet:

Planning the Legacy of Your Faith: A Guide for our Parish Members

A copy may be obtained by telephoning the parish office at 613-733-0336

Already have a will? Read on.

How do I include St Thomas in my will?

You do not need to make a new will if you decide to leave a bequest to St Thomas.

To change an existing will without incurring the expense of preparing anew one, you can add a codicil. A codicil is a separate document that amends a will.

A codicil, dated and witnessed, can change an existing provision or add a new one. A bequest to the church would only require a simple change, unless it would have a major effect on the distribution of your estate.

If you are thinking about leaving St Thomas a legacy of your faith, speak with Fr Tim Kehoe (613-355-0816) or Fr Tom Hubschmid (403-921-2553)

Don't have a will? Please refer to the text in the top half of this page.